W. E. Burton Conservation Area

602 Church Street, Russell, Ontario

History of the Area

The property of W.E. Burton Conservation Area was obtained by South Nation Conservation in 1998.

The park runs alongside the Castor River in Russell, and contains a spectacular view of the Russell Dam.

The trails contain various mature tree species, including pine, making it the perfect location to discover nature.

Take a Step Into Nature

Nestled in the quiet Russell neighbourhood along Church Street, W.E. Burton Conservation Area offers a place for visitors to step into nature. Featuring a beautiful tree-lined trail, it is easy to see why this area is a favourite amongst local hikers.

This popular 3 kilometer recreational trail is used by many local and visiting, day-use guests.

Day-use visitors can cast their fishing lines from the River banks, or enjoy a serene picnic in the pines.
