

Purpose and Eligibility

The purpose of the 2010 South Nation River Program Grants program is to encourage and support River-related festivals, events and/or projects throughout the South Nation Conservation jurisdiction. Municipalities are partnering with SNC to contribute a total of $6000. to river and stream side activities. Events and activities can apply for up to $500. per community. This program is open to non-profit organizations and municipalities. Including recreational and educational activities on the water within your event will be considered an asset.

After-the-fact requests for funding are not eligible for assistance.

Application for Grant

Parties interested in applying for the 2010 South Nation River Grants program must submit a one page letter to South Nation Conservation, to the attention of the Communications Committee outlining the reason for their request along with event date, location and all necessary contact information.

Conditions of Grant Approval

River events or programs approved for funding must provide credit to South Nation Conservation wherever opportunities occur (i.e. posters, handbills, program, website, etc.), and be included in all media releases. Written credit must read South Nation Conservation, including reproduction of the South Nation Conservation logo. (available from the South Nation Communications Office)

South Nation Conservation may, at its discretion, choose to waive some conditions of grant approval. In cases where the grant is intended for a permanent or ongoing initiative, the conditions for acknowledgement of South Nation Conservation may be revised accordingly. However, in all cases the South Nation Conservation banner / flag must be featured prominently at the event or activity (available from South Nation Conservation Communications Office).

Within six weeks of the event, successful applicants must provide South Nation Conservation with an event summary, which is to include photos, estimated attendance, and copies of all promotional materials, advertising, and press coverage.

Funds will not be released unless all conditions have been met to the satisfaction of South Nation Conservation.
