Hunting and Conservation Interests

How did you become interested in wildlife and conservation?

List your hobbies and extra-curricular activities:

Describe any volunteer/community service work that you have been involved with:

How much hunting experience do you have? Do your parents/guardians hunt?

What is your favourite type of Waterfowl? Why?

Do you belong to any other conservation groups?

The South Nation Chapter of Delta Waterfowl would like to thank all its sponsors for their support. This course provides youth with the opportunity to be completely certified to hunt while instilling in them a keen interest in our hunting heritage, and a passion for wildlife and conservation. At the end of the program, youth will have obtained:

1. Hunter education, firearms safety, mentorship and certification;
2. Basic waterfowl identification;
3. An introduction to archery and skeet shooting;
4. Decoy placement, calling, and retriever demonstration;
5. Hands-on learning activities geared towards conservation;
6. History of delta waterfowl and hunting heritage in Ontario.
