Dear Sirs / Mesdames:

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements of South Nation River Conservation Authority for the year ended December 31, 2020, for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards.

In making the representations outlined below, we took the time necessary to appropriately inform ourselves on the subject matter through inquiries of entity personnel with relevant knowledge and experience, and, where appropriate, by inspecting supporting documentation.

We confirm that (to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves):

Financial Statements

We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement dated December 17, 2020 for:

- a. Preparing and fairly presenting the financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards;
- b. Providing you all relevant information, such as:
 - i. Accounting records, supporting data and other relevant documentation,
 - ii. Minutes of meetings (such as shareholders, board of directors and audit committees) or summaries of actions taken for which minutes have not yet been prepared, and
 - iii. Information on any other matters, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation of the financial statements.
- c. Ensuring that all transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements; and

- d. Designing and implementing such internal control as we determined is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. We have also communicated to you any deficiencies in the design and implementation or the maintenance of internal control over financial reporting of which management is aware.

Fraud and Non-Compliance

We have disclosed to you:

- a. All of our knowledge in relation to actual, alleged or suspected fraud affecting the entity's financial statements involving:
 - i. Management;
 - ii. Employees who have significant roles in internal control; or
 - iii. Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements;
- b. All of our knowledge in relation to allegations of fraud or suspected fraud communicated by employees, former employees, analysts, regulators or others;
- c. All known instances of non-compliance or suspected non-compliance with laws and regulations, including all aspects of contractual agreements that should be considered when preparing the financial statements;
- d. All known, actual, or possible litigation and claims that should be considered when preparing the financial statements; and
- e. The results of our risk assessments regarding possible fraud or error in the financial statements.

Related Parties

We confirm that there were no related-party relationships or transactions that occurred during the period.

Estimates

We acknowledge our responsibility for determining the accounting estimates required for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards. Those estimates reflect our judgment based on our knowledge and experience of past and current events, and on our assumptions about conditions we expect to exist and courses of action we expect to take. We believe that the significant assumptions and measurement methods used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable.

Subsequent Events

All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which Canadian public sector accounting standards requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.

Commitments and Contingencies

There are no commitments, contingent liabilities/assets or guarantees (written or oral) that should be disclosed in the financial statements. This includes liabilities arising from contract terms, illegal acts or possible illegal acts, and environmental matters that would have an impact on the financial statements.

Adjustments

We have reviewed, approved and recorded all of your proposed adjustments to our accounting records. This includes journal entries, changes to account coding, classification of certain transactions and preparation of, or changes to, certain accounting records.

General

1. We have reviewed, approved and recorded all of the following:
 - a. Adjusting journal entries you prepared or changed;
 - b. Account codes you determined or changed;
 - c. Transactions you classified; and
 - d. Accounting records you prepared or changed.
2. We have responded fully to all inquiries made to us and have made available to you all accounting and financial records and related data of the organization during your audit.
3. We believe that the significant assumptions used in arriving at the fair values of financial instruments as measured and disclosed in the financial statements are reasonable and appropriate in the circumstances.
4. The nature of all material measurement uncertainties has been appropriately disclosed in the financial statements, including all estimates where it is reasonably possible that the estimate will change in the near term and the effect of the change could be material to the financial statements.

5. We have informed you of all outstanding and possible claims, whether or not they have been discussed with legal counsel.
6. All liabilities and contingencies, including those associated with guarantees, whether written or oral, have been disclosed to you and are appropriately reflected in the financial statements.
7. We have disclosed to you, and the organization has complied with, all aspects of contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of non-compliance, including all covenants, conditions or other requirements of all outstanding debt.
8. We have obtained all consents that are required under applicable privacy legislation for the collection, use, and disclosure to you of personal information.
9. The minute books of the organization are a complete record of all meetings and resolutions of members and directors throughout the period and to the present date.
10. We are aware of the environmental laws and regulations that have an impact on our organization and we are in compliance. There are no known environmental liabilities that have not been accrued for or disclosed in the financial statements.

Other

1. None of the members were in debt to the organization, other than in the ordinary course of business at the year-end or at any time during the year.
2. The organization did not make any related party transactions during the year that have not been disclosed to you.
3. All management fees, bonuses or other remuneration paid to or accrued on behalf of members or related parties represent the fair market value of services performed for, or goods provided to, the organization.

Yours truly,

SOUTH NATION RIVER CONSERVATION AUTHORITY
