

Application for Notice to Engage in an Activity in a Vulnerable Area for a Municipal Drinking Water Supply
Under Part IV of the Clean Water Act, 2006

Under the Clean Water Act (the Act), a drinking water threat is “an activity or condition that adversely affects or has the potential to adversely affect the quality or quantity of any water that is or may be used as a source of drinking water”. The Act lists activities that are a drinking water threat if they take place in select areas, under certain circumstances.

The Risk Management Official for the Raisin-South Nation Source Protection Area will review this Application to determine if any activities related to your application can pose a significant risk to the Municipal drinking water source and if any policy(s) in the Raisin-South Nation Source Protection Plan (SPP) apply. The SPP policies manage drinking water threat activities and protect municipal drinking water sources.

By Agreement, South Nation Conservation, as the South Nation Source Protection Authority, acts as an Agent of the Municipality for duties and enforcement under Part IV of the Act, for the Regulation of Drinking Water Threats.
