

Office Acknowledgment

Ontario Building Code Standard Practice – SP.OBC.13.12. – Definition of a Bedroom

"Bedroom" and "Sleeping Area" each means a room or area intended for sleeping.

Therefore, a home office, library, sewing room, den, studio, loft, a games room, or any other conditioned room that is proposed, may be exempt from being considered a bedroom or sleeping area provided there is no closet.

- I certify that the indicated _____ on the _____ floor plan will not be converted into a bedroom in the future.
- Also, I acknowledge that if the _____ is to be converted into a bedroom, a Septic Compliance Review is required.

I certify that if the property should be sold, that I will notify the future owner of the above and that if they are to make any changes, they should consult with South Nation Conservation.
